

Italian American Executives of Transportation 2010 Scholarship Committee

Dear Friends,

Let me begin by congratulating our 2010 Scholarship Recipients:

Michael Addante, John Bertucci, Francesca Boehmer, Emily Caliendo, Lyndsey Caliendo, Allison Clark, Valentino Dolcimascolo, Mitchell Gurick, Samantha Knapp, Christopher Laughlin, Alberto Montovano, James Markey, Alyssa Maucieri, Joseph Orlando, Samantha Sainsbury, Michael Saraceno, Thomas Schimalde, and Angelo Tufano. We also have our first Vocal Scholarship winner, Kelsey Betzelberger.

We take great pride in knowing many talented and deserving students have received assistance from our Scholarship Program. The funding of this event was not only from our annual events, such as our Dinner Dance, Spaghetti Dinner, Golf Outing, and Candlelight Bowl, but also many sponsors and supporters.

We especially want to thank our “2008 Man of the Year” Michael Tadin, our “2009 Man of the Year”, Christopher Cacciatore, Anthony Fiacchino, of Aerostar Global, Dennis Fiedler of Screws Industries, William Florio, Victor J. Cacciatore, Vito M. D’Ambrosio and for their very Generous contributions. Tonight’s Awards would not be possible without this generous support.

The IAET sincerely thank the families and friends of our Honorees, Carmen Iacullo and Richard Morbidoni, for helping make these Scholarships possible.

“Mille Grazie a Tutti”

Sincerely,

The 2010 Scholarship Committee:

Charlotte Sorci, Chairperson

Carl Adducci

Anthony J. Bertucci Memorial Scholarship

Marina Cartage was founded in 1959 by

Anthony J. Bertucci

Raised in a close-knit family, Anthony (Minnie) put in long hours to get his new company off the ground. When he passed away in 1978, he left behind a legacy of devotion to his company and pride in customer satisfaction that still contributes to Marina's growth today.

The IAET gives thanks to Marina Cartage for the generous contributions the company and the family of Mike Tadin have given to the community.

We are especially thankful for MAT Construction and Marina's continuous generous support of the IAET and the funding of the Anthony J. Bertucci Memorial Scholarships which will be awarded this evening.

Victor J. Cacciatore and Elgin Sweeping Scholarship

Victor J. Cacciatore
Founder, Elgin Sweeping Services

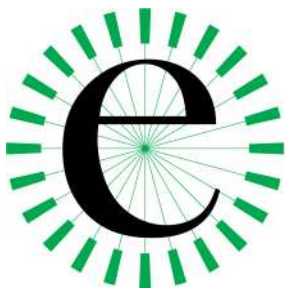

Christopher Cacciatore
President, Elgin Sweeping Services
2009 IAET Man of the Year

Elgin Sweeping Services is the largest independently owned sweeping company in the Midwest, Elgin Sweeping now boasts a fleet of over 100 multi-use vehicles, including street sweepers, pickup trucks, high pressure water flusher trucks, dump trucks, and vacuum trucks. This arsenal of vehicles allows Elgin Sweeping to service a broad variety of customer needs, from street and parking lot sweeping, to portering and property maintenance, from seal coating and pavement marking, to pressure washing and snow removal.

We thank the Cacciatore Family for their generosity in the funding of these much needed Scholarships and we hope they continue to do so in the future.

We are also very thankful for the long and continuous support the Cacciatore family has given the IAET and the community. The IAET is very proud to have such good friends.

Anthony Dominic Fiacchino Memorial Scholarship

Agrarian
Distribution Group

The late Anthony Dominic Fiacchino loved his role as Buttons the Clown. He loved entertaining children and was a firm believer in education. He was one of the founding members of the Italians of American Descent of Dupage County and was instrumental in establishing the Scholarship fund for the IADDC. He was father of five, grandfather of nine, and great grandfather of two.

We are very thankful for the funding of the Anthony Dominic Fiacchino Scholarship Fund by IAET member Anthony Fiacchino.

We are very proud to be honoring Anthony and Sandy Fiacchino as the IAET 2011 Humanitarians.

Kelsey Betzelberger

IAET's First Vocal Scholarship Winner

Kelsey Betzelberger, soprano, is in the first year of her Master's program in Vocal Performance and Operatic Literature at Northwestern University. She spent the summer of 2010 in Jay Lesenger's Chautauqua Opera Young Artist Program, directly after performing the role of Marie Antoinette in Corigliano's The Ghosts of Versailles in her senior year at Northwestern University. In both 2010 and 2009, she was a regional finalist for the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions, as well as a semi-finalist in both the Palm Beach Opera Competition and the Bel Canto Foundation Competition. In the summer of 2009, she participated in an intensive German program through the Universität der Braunschweig in northern Germany. She currently studies with Pamela Hinchman and Alan Darling. She greatly enjoys eating Girl Scout cookies, reading German romance novels and visiting her wonderful family in Oregon.

The IAET is extremely proud to have Kelsey as our first Vocal Scholarship winner. We give thanks to the Italian Cultural Center for allowing us to add this Scholarship to the 2010 Italian Cultural Center Vocal Scholarship Competition.

We give special thanks to Leonora LiPluma, Estelle Raimondi, and Nicholas Raimondi for continuing the annual competition. Thanks to members and friends who served on the selection committee; John Rizzo, Dominic Candeloro, Josette Montesana Weber, Lilia Juarez, Gilda Marzullo, Michelle Moreno, Flora Spampinato, Dr. Francesca Turner, and Jeannine Valentino.
