

Italian American Executives of Transportation

A Benefit for Center for Independent Futures (CIF) & IAET Charitable Foundation

Annual Spring Fashion Show...

With All the Frills Upon it...

Women's, Children, and Doggie Fashions

Sunday - March 25th, 2012

Alta Villa Banquets: 430 N. Addison Rd. Addison, IL 60101

Center for Independent Futures (CIF) makes it possible for young adults with disabilities to find homes and to live and work in the community. Illinois has now slipped to the 51st ranked, below the District of Columbia, in providing homes and support for adults with disabilities. We strive to help young adults take pride in their place in the community. They have the same dreams of homes, jobs, and relationships as you and I. This is why we need your help.

Italian American Executives of Transportation and the Italian American of Transportation Charitable Foundation (IAETCF) –

- Assists in educational programs, scholarships and educational activities.
- Is of charitable assistance whenever possible to Italian American groups and other worthwhile organizations.
- Promotes personal acquaintances and friendly relations between its members and enhances the image of the Italian Americans in the community.
- Promotes and enhance cultural awareness.
